

Presentation in the Focus

23-24 April 2009

Budapest

Organiser: Hungarian Museum for Technology and Transport, (Budapest, XIV. Városligeti krt. 11.)

Location:

Day 1: Hungarian Museum for Technology and Transport, (Budapest, XIV. Városligeti krt. 11.)

Day 2: Hungarian Patent Office (Budapest, V. Garibaldi utca 2.)

Day 1:

09.30-10.00 Registration at the Hungarian Museum for Technology and Transport

I. Possibilities of presentation at technical museums

Chair: Dr. Judit Berta-Varga, Deputy Director General, Hungarian Museum for Technology and Transport (HMTT)

10.00-10.15 Dr. Annamária Vigh, Head of Division and Erzsébet Kóczián-Szentpéteri, Director General: Words of welcome

10.15-10.35 Erzsébet Kóczián-Szentpéteri: The future is before us (?) Exhibitions of transport and history of technology in Hungary and abroad

10.35-10.55 Imre Kaján: Creativity – basic requirement of the presentation practice at technical museums

10.55-11.15 Tibor Szőke: The first Science Museum in Hungary; innovation in museum foundation – presentation of a successful project in Miskolc

11.15-11.40 Gábor Szunyogh: Mobileum – a new way of presentation and education at the Technical Study Stores of HMTT

11.40-12.00 Mária Káldy: Opportunities of the use of museum pedagogy in exhibitions

12.00-12.30 Reactions, questions, discussion

12.30-13.00 Buffet lunch

II. Good examples, pilot projects – application for the Renaissance of Technical Heritage

13.00-13.20 Erzsébet Bircher: Adventure mine in Sopron

13.20-13.40 Adél Dencsi: The project of the railway engine parade in the Park of Railway History

13.40-14.00 Dr. Edina Méri: Indigo dye manufacture in Pápa

14.00-14.30 Dr. Géza Bencze: “So as our grandchildren can see it too”. Evaluation of the winning applications of the competition “Renaissance of the technical heritage” – Lessons to be drawn from the implementation

14.30-15.00 Coffee break

III. Topical issues

15.00-15.30 Dr. László G. Nagy: Information about the changes in the rules related to the system of technical supervision and to the licences of operation

15.30- 16.00 Reports – Possibility of application until 20 March

16.00 – 17.00 Discussion and remarks

17.00 Closing speech – Mrs. Berta, Judit deputy director general

17.30-19.00 Taking of lodgings (Hotels Benczúr and Szőnyi)

Day 2

IV. Good examples, pilot projects from Europe

Chair: Dr. habil. Éva Vámos, senior curator

09.00-9.40 Mag. Peter Donhauser: Styles of presentation in technical museums

09.40-10.20 Mag. Horymír Kubicek: Reconstruction project of the Prague National Museum for Technology

10.20-11.00 Dr. Helmut Lackner – Mag. Peter Donhauser: The Technical Museum Vienna is 100 years old

11.00-11.15 Coffee break

11.15-12.00 Axel Hüttinger: Technology of exhibitions at technical museums

12.00- 13.00 Remarks and discussion

13.00-13.10 Closing speech – Erzsébet Kóczián-Szentpéteri, Director General

13.10-13.45 Buffet lunch

14.00-15.00 The Parliament Building from a technical aspect – Exclusive guided tour for the participants of the conference among the “machines” of the Parliament building

15.00- Travelling home